concerning

CHILBLAINS

ICD CODE: 991.5

Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986
subsection 196B(3)

1. Being of the view that on the sound medical-scientific evidence available to the Repatriation Medical Authority, it is more probable than not that chilblains and death from chilblains can be related to eligible war service (other than operational service) rendered by veterans and defence service (other than hazardous service) rendered by members of the Forces, the Repatriation Medical Authority determines, under subsection 196B(3) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (the Act), that the factors that must exist before it can be said that, on the balance of probabilities, chilblains or death from chilblains is connected with the circumstances of that service, are:
  - (a) having exposed the affected part of the body to non-freezing temperatures below 10°Celsius immediately before the clinical onset of chilblains; or
  - (b) inability to obtain appropriate clinical management for chilblains.
2. Subject to clause 3 (below) at least one of the factors set out in paragraphs 1(a) to 1(b) must be related to any service rendered by a person.
3. The factor set out in paragraph 1(b) applies only where:

- (a) the person's chilblains were contracted before a period, or part of a period, of service to which the factor is related; and
- (b) the relationship suggested between the chilblains and the particular service of a person is a relationship set out in paragraph 8(1)(e), 9(1)(e) or 70(5)(d) of the Act.

4. For the purposes of this Statement of Principles:

“chilblains” means a recurrent localised erythema and doughy subcutaneous swelling caused by exposure to cold and accompanied by pruritus and a burning sensation, attracting ICD code 991.5;

“ICD code” means a number assigned to a particular kind of injury or disease in the tenth edition of the International Classification of Diseases 9th Revision, effective date of 1 October 1993, copyrighted by the US Commission on Professional and Hospital Activities, and having the Library of Congress number 77-94472;

Dated this Twenty-first day of June
